

TASC's IRS Form 5500 preparation made easy

If you have 100 or more employees participating in a health and welfare benefits plan, you must complete an IRS Form 5500.

Failure to meet this requirement can mean costly consequences. In addition to possible criminal penalties for willful IRS Form 5500 failures, you may be fined up to $1,100 a day during which time your IRS Form 5500 is missing or incomplete. You need not pay attorney hourly fees plus fees for phone calls and emails for this service.

TASC takes the pain and cost out of Form 5500 preparation.

TASC will provide comprehensive service for a fraction of the cost! TASC will collect the benefits-related employer data, complete an IRS Form 5500 return, and take this risk from you. We have the skill, the experience, and the expertise to satisfy the Form 5500 filing requirements for your employer-sponsored health and welfare benefits.
